

Media Release: May 5, 2009

Pedal to the Park rated among "Best" by Bicycling magazine

In case you haven't seen the June issue of Bicycling magazine ("Cue Sheet" guide to the best in cycling, pg 28), a reminder that Pedal to the Park returns Sunday June 7 for a 4th trip to Petco Park. An extra treat this year, the Padres have selected Pedal to the Park and Blind Stokers Club cyclist Ian Gayola to deliver the game ball to the pitcher's mound. Register now and share a bike ride and ballgame with all of us.

Past PTP participants will remember that the event features:
a variety of scenic routes that start/end at convenient location in Balboa Park;
inclusive cycling and ballgame options for all ages and abilities;
ride leaders for families and novices, and tandem rides for cyclists with disabilities;
complimentary Padres Bicycle Pavilion to safeguard your bike during the game;
shade-friendly seating in the PTP section inside third base.

Thanks for your past support, and hope to see you on the road and at the ballpark.
Register now by going to <http://pedaltothepark.com>
Your action rewards yourself with a local day-cation and supports our 2 benefit partners listed below. Pass the word to families, friends, fraternities, and fun-lovers of all kinds.
You don't need to be an avid cyclist or a friar fanatic to enjoy a pedal to the park.

Dave White
Therapeutic Recreation Services, volunteer tandem captain
SD County Bicycle Coalition, board member Pedal to the Park / EarthFair / Air Show / . . . where next?